Summary of Meeting
1.	Additional feedback/ideas from committee – racial disparities in student discipline
	Ms. La Torre briefly summarized how the district is working toward addressing and resolving racial disparities in student discipline in Wissahickon schools. As such, the committee discussed the following ideas: cultural competency, power of relationships, restorative practices training, social-emotional learning, Code of Conduct Micro Study, school climate surveys, multi-tiered systems of support (MTSS), behavior interventions in the classroom, and mentorship program.
2.	Feedback/ideas from committee – increased violence in area schools and its impact on students
	Mr. Badger led the committee in a discussion about the increased violence in area schools and how it is affecting students at-large. The committee shared its thoughts and ideas for supporting students.
