Summary of Meeting
1.	Presentation of District Data – Professional Learning Opportunities for Staff
	Dr. Dawan and Ms. La Torre presented information on current learning experiences that are in place throughout the year for administrators and faculty. Each professional development session offers layered activities to support and foster equity and inclusion among staff, students, and families. The districtwide learning opportunities work in alignment to promote equitable environments and outcomes that support all students’ social, emotional, mental, behavioral, and academic wellness and success. Some of these professional learning session topics have included Cultural Responsiveness, Trauma Informed Care, Social Emotional Learning, and Restorative Practices. The presentation highlighted professional learning next steps for WSD’s staff and offered an opportunity for feedback.
2.	Action steps from AGTYAP board presentation (presented at work session public meeting on 1/31/22)
	Time was allotted to field questions and recommendations related to the AGTYAP presentation, as presented at the public Board meeting on January 31, 2022.
3.	Additional feedback/ideas from committee on disproportionality in AP courses (presented at REOC meeting on 1/24/22)
