

“Each and Every Student”

Our unwavering commitment is to meet the needs of each and every student.

“Each and Every Student”

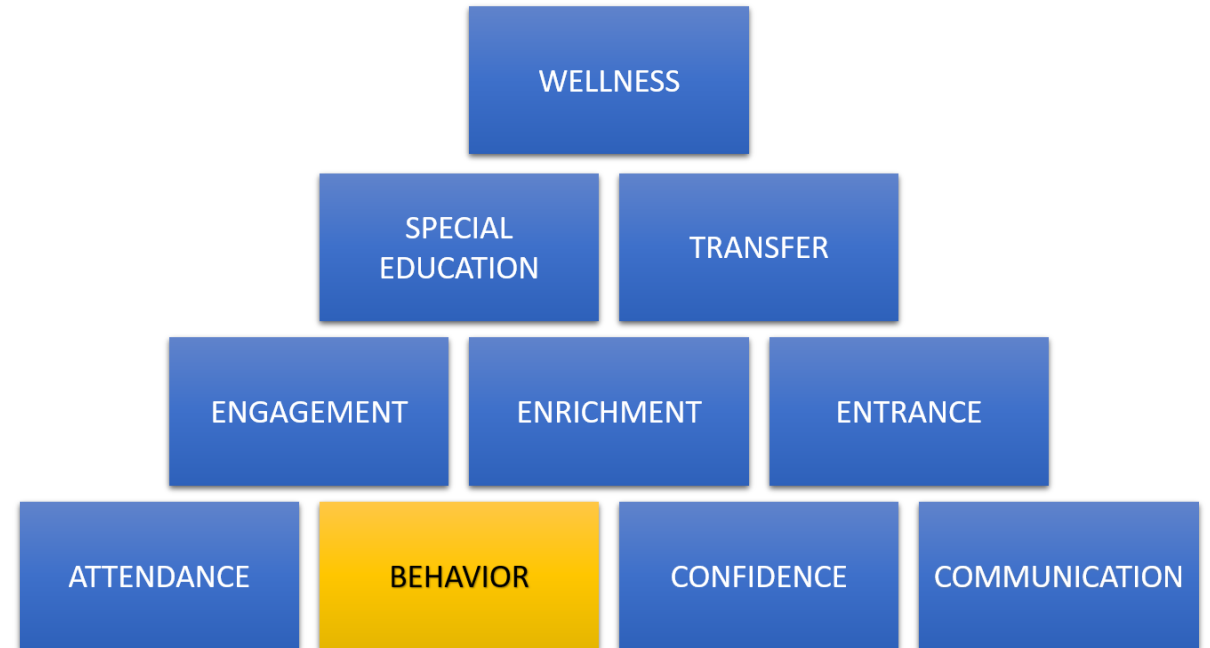

Our unwavering commitment is to meet the needs of each and every student.

- Relationships Matter: Know something about each and every student.
- Differentiated Instruction: Meet the learning needs of each and every student.
- School Counseling Excellence: Find the best post-high school fit for each and every student.

If we discern a gap, any gap, work to close it as soon as possible!

Tonight's Focus: The Behavior Gap

In our world there are no bad kids, just impressionable, conflicted young people wrestling with emotions & impulses trying to communicate their feelings & needs the only way they know how.

What has been the focus of our work during the 2016-17 and 2017-18 school year?

- Positive Relationships between and among staff and students
- Mentoring Programs
 - Individual Buildings
- Shift to Restorative Practices

Current focus for attacking the Behavior Gap...

- Review of IEPs and Behavior Plans
- Professional Development
 - Use of Behavior Specialists
- Expansion of Mentoring Programs
 - Individual Buildings
 - Transition Mentors
- Adopted New Code of Discipline
 - Restorative Practices

Expanding the Scope of the Behavior Gap

- Alternate Forms of Discipline
- Increase Positive Relationships between and among staff and students
-
- Explore School-Wide Positive Behavior Systems
- Continued Professional Development
 - Use of Behavior Specialists

“Each and Every Student”

Our unwavering commitment is to meet the needs of each and every student.

The Behavior Gap Contributors to the Work

Beth Bauer

Kim Bender

Kris DiGregorio

Jen Dunn-Rodriguez

Krystle Eberwein

Erin Jerardi

Concetta Lupo

Jeanmarie Mercier

Lisa Ruff